

STM Weekly Round Up ^{Royal}

w/e 05.05.23

Dear Parents and Carers,

As I sit here and write this week's round up our Coronation celebrations are well underway and the children look absolutely fabulous. They have already enjoyed a wonderful assembly full of facts about this weekend's Coronation and the opportunity to have a picture with our (Cardboard) King! The school is currently tucking into the celebration lunch with tasty sandwiches and scones whilst singing along to some British songs and are looking forward to decorating crown biscuits. We will try to photograph as much as we can and the best way to see those is via our website and our Twitter account - if you have not already joined you can do so via our website or search for STMprimary_se9 on Twitter. Thank you once again for your support and enjoy the Bank Holiday weekend.

Year 3 travel back to the Egyptian era...

On Thursday Y3 were transported back in time to Ancient Egypt. As well as being dressed in fabulous costumes they took part in Egyptian dance, a competition to create the best Mummy and after lunch had a virtual visit from the British Museum where they looked at different artefacts. The class even had an opportunity to try foods that would've been eaten in that era - which received mixed reactions! They also became experts in decoding mathematical problems and finally created their own cartouche using hieroglyphs.

Yr 6 SATS - Tuesday 9th May - Friday 12th May

Next week Year 6 will be sitting their Statutory assessments. We are running a Year 6 breakfast club all week from 8.30am so the class have a chance relax, eat and be together before their exams and we encourage everyone to be there if they can (siblings can be placed in Hopscotch). If they are unable to attend please ensure your child is at school promptly at 9am so there are no delays to the starting of the tests. Thank you.
