

Dear Parents and Carers,

Thank you to all of you that took time out of your summer holiday to scour the shoreline and beaches across the UK and abroad finding items for our start of year topic - ‘Take one Book’. All classes are beginning the year studying Flotsam by David Wiesner. A wordless book that tells the story of a young boy who finds a washed up camera on the beach. You have all added to a wonderful display and we look forward to seeing some of the work the children produce over the coming weeks linked to this book.
