

STM Weekly Round Up

w/e 14.11.25

Dear Parents and Carers,

Thank you to those that have already attended their parent meetings and taken the time to complete our survey. Your feedback is valuable to us, it helps us celebrate what is working well and identify areas where we can continue to grow and improve. Some parent meetings are continuing next week but if you have been unable to book a slot please do let the office know and a time can be arranged. It is vital that class teachers have the opportunity to meet with all parents so they can discuss progress, achievements and next steps for your child.

Staying safe on line

It has been brought to our attention through our internet safety lessons that some of our children are playing online with people they do not know, in particular the game Roblox where they are using the chat function to talk to these strangers and as a result experiencing bad language and inappropriate comments. We wanted to make parents aware so you have the opportunity to turn off the chat function. We are committed to working with you to keep your children safe online .

Other Faiths Week

As part of our commitment to providing a rich and inclusive education, next week classes will be learning about Judaism. The children will explore aspects of the religion and a faith that has deep historical connections to Christianity. Some classes will be visited by Rabbi Gerald from Catford Synagogue and the children will learn about the key elements of Jewish belief, tradition and culture. Celebrating and exploring another faith helps our children grow in empathy, appreciate diversity and recognise the shared values that unite us as God’s children.

Own Clothes Day for Christmas tombola donations

On Friday 21st November we are asking the children to come in their own clothes along with a donation for our Christmas tombola stall. Our PTA Christmas fair is fast approaching and we look forward to seeing you there on Friday 12th December 3.45pm-5.30pm

New School dinner menu

The autumn/winter dinner menu is now available to download via our school website and a copy was sent to parents earlier in the week. We are trialling some new dishes and will keep you updated on any changes.
Thank you
